

'round town

with Betty Allen...

William Henley, principal of Campbell Grammar School, had a Cassandra-like ring in his voice when he addressed the members of the PTA Tuesday. He told them that there was no alternative to half-day sessions at the school in the fall which will have to continue until the new schools are built. At present there is an overload in the Campbell school of 60 per cent, with an overload of 90 per cent expected in the fall semester.

What gave his talk a truly Cassandra-like ominousness was the news that, when the new schools are completed, they will only take care of our present needs. According to educators the elementary schools in California are expected to double in attendance in the next eight years!

This over-crowding is the price we will have to pay if we want to live in a state so desirable that it seems as though half of the rest of the country comes here, too. We certainly should all give some thought and some acceptance of the fact that it is not going to be cheap to live here. At present our schools, our highways, our state institutions, and our hospitals are not adequate for our present needs. With the population increasing at an amazing rate, we must give our attention not only to our present needs but to some adequate planning for the future. It is going to take a lot of money to maintain our educational standards and all the other tangible and intangible assets which have made our state so attractive.

To get back to the local school—although the half-day sessions will undoubtedly not be pleasant for teachers, pupils or parents, they are to be organized in a thoroughly efficient manner. Each new school will be set up as a unit within the Campbell school. It will have a principal, full staff of teachers and classes composed of students who will, by reason of the location of their homes, attend the new school. Then, when the schools are completed each unit will be "lifted" bodily out and set down as a working whole in the new school.

Still on the subject of the Campbell school—the school nurse, Mrs. Esther Johnson, deserves a big pat on the back. In spite of the terrifically overcrowded conditions at the school, contagious diseases have, so far this year, been held to a remarkable minimum, showing a lot of conscientious work on her part.

Haven't talked to anyone who isn't pleased over the prospects of a year-round industry for Campbell, but have talked to a lot who were amused at the news story in a San Jose daily this morning which stated that the San Jose Chamber of Commerce Industrial Department had been helping the company find a site for several months. It's a cinch the San Jose Chamber had nothing to do with the final selection!

FUTURE FARMERS SCHEDULE DANCE

Members of the Future Farmers at Campbell Union High School have scheduled their annual Barn Dance for this Saturday evening in the High School gymnasium. Members and guests will attend in appropriate costumes.

Miss Fablinger New Librarian

Due to the pressure of family responsibilities Mrs. Ricardo Villafuentes has been forced to resign as librarian at the Campbell Library. Mrs. Villafuentes has served since the resignation of Mrs. Lillian Voge, who died shortly after resigning.

Appointed to fill the vacancy is Miss Mary Fablinger. She will be familiar to most Campbell book borrowers because she has been a frequent substitute librarian for the past year.

A resident of Campbell for most of her life, Miss Fablinger is a retired school teacher who taught at both the Doyle School and the Campbell Grammar School. She and her sister, Mrs. Francis Swain, live on Central Ave.

Campbell Music Students Receive New Honor

Two Campbell High School students, Miss Jeannette Gomes and Victor Corsiglia, are the first students of members of the Santa Clara County Branch of the Music Teachers' Association, to receive the association's award of a "Ten Year Student Award Pin" to be given annually by the group.

Mrs. Kathleen Bergeron, Campbell music teacher, is in charge of the awards.

The two outstanding musicians were presented in a recital yesterday morning at the home of Miss Evelyn Heath in San Jose under the auspices of the association. Miss Gomes played the Allemande and Menuet by Bach; Ron-do, D Major by Mozart, and Chopin's Polonaise, A Major. Selected for Victor Corsiglia's share of the recital were: Invention No. 10 by Bach; Sonata in F Minor, First Movement, by Beethoven, and Tango in D by Albeniz.

Miss Gomes is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Gomes of Hamilton Ave., and received her musical instruction from Mrs. Velma Hoxie. The other youthful musician, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. V. Corsiglia, Stevens Creek Road, had his earlier musical training with Mrs. Virginia Powell and continued with Mrs. Velma Hoxie with whom he is now studying.

Union District Votes $62,000 Bonds for School

Voters of the Union District Monday passed a $62,000 bond issue to construct a new elementary school. The vote was 93 to 25.

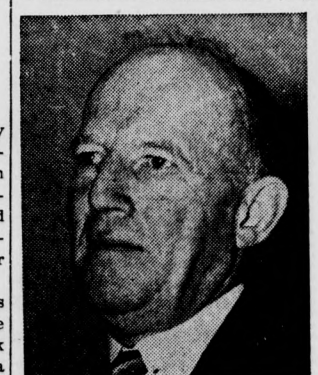

Desire for the new school was indicated by the heavy vote, registering an almost four to one majority favoring the proposition, according to K. A. McDonell, principal of the school.

Most of the funds voted will be used to construct a four-room building on land adjacent to the present school. The new structure will serve as a nucleus for an eventual 15 to 20 room school planned for sometime in the future.

Present school facilities, completed in 1914, are out of date, McDonell said. They were designed to accommodate 70 students but now house 116. Enrollment in the next year is expected to soar to more than 150, according to Ross C. Trowbridge, president of the Board of Trustees.

"California Here We Come"

Next Sunday, April 13, will be California day at the Methodist Church in Col. McBride's adult Sunday school class. Those born in California will be honored guests.

FRANCIS B. SAYRE
Mr. Francis B. Sayre, United States representative to the United Nations Trusteeship Council, was elected the first president of the new U. N. body. Mr. Sayre was formerly the U. S. High Commissioner to the Philippines and Assistant Secretary of State of the U. S.

RAG DRIVE SCHEDULED

Members of the Campbell Grammar School PTA will conduct a rag drive from April 14 to 17. Campbell residents are asked to contribute old clothes and rags to grammar school students who will collect the material.

ILL IN HOSPITAL

Richard Roll, small son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Roll, is a patient in the isolation ward at the County Hospital. The Rolls, who formerly made their home in Campbell, now live in Chemekeeta Park.

Campbell Cadet Corps Plans Battalion Review

A battalion review will be held May 2 at Campbell Union High School by the newly organized Cadet Corps. Representatives of the American Legion have been invited to attend. The high school band will play for the occasion.

Under the leadership of N. Warren Sheldon, 75 boys have been enrolled in the cadet corps for nine weeks. The organization is part of the First Battalion of the 12th Regiment of the California High School Cadet Corps. There are 80 such organizations in the state. A regular Army set-up was used in organizing the boys into two companies and four platoons.

Financial support is given the cadet corps by the state, which furnishes textbooks and ornaments, by the Federal government which furnishes the arms and the equipment, and by the local school board which pays the instructor's salary.

According to Col. Sheldon, Campbell High is an ideal school for such an organization, as the facilities and available space are adequate. A rifle range is to be built under the football bleachers, and the small field-house located near the football field will be enlarged for classroom activities and visual aid.

After the holidays, Col. Sheldon hopes to have guard mount once a week. By next year he anticipates an enlarged program which may include a rifle course for both boys and girls, with local, state and national competition.

TEACHER RESIGNS

Miss Irene Boos, kindergarten teacher at Campbell Grammar School, was forced to resign last week due to ill health. No other teacher has yet been found to fill the vacancy.

County Committee Studies School District Changes

An 11-member committee on re-organization of Santa Clara County School Districts met this week for the first time. The function of the group is to study possible unifications or other changes in school district boundaries in the county. The county group will then report to a regional commission and to the state commission on school districts.

Chairman is Dean John Bartky of Stanford University School of Education. Dr. Elmer Staffelsbach, on leave from the education department at San Jose State College, is director of the survey for Region 1, which includes Santa Clara County.

Other members are: William G. Henley, district superintendent, Campbell Union Grammar School; Ralph R. Fields, Superintendent of San Jose city schools; Mrs. Pearl S. Shreve of Palo Alto; Harold B. Long, district superintendent, Gilroy schools; Walter Seibert, Mountain View; Millard E. McCollam, San Jose; Mrs. Ed Lundin, Santa Clara; C. F. Hamsher, Los Gatos; A. L. Christopher, Morgan Hill.

U.N. Gets $8,500,000 for Headquarters

Shaking hands over the gift that paved the way for United Nations headquarters in New York, Secretary-General Trygve Lie (center), representing the United Nations, accepts an $8,500,000 check from John D. Rockefeller III (right), who acts for his father. Looking on is New York's Mayor William O'Dwyer. The $8,500,000 gift from John D. Rockefeller, Jr., will be used to purchase the U. N. headquarters site.

Kiwanians Hold Inter-Club Meeting

Thirty-one members of the Mt. View Kiwanis club met with the Campbell club on Tuesday to hear Morton Harvey of Los Gatos discuss job relations. He stressed four important points for supervising well: 1. let each worker know his job; 2. give credit when due; 3. let each worker know about changes scheduled to take place in his department; 4. make the best use of each man's ability.

Guests included Howard Payne, a former Kiwanian; Norman Corvello of the Campbell Hardware Co.; Paul Kankel of Tay-Holbrook Co.; C. J. Anderson, a Rotarian of Spokane, Wash.; and Mel Estrada, the weekly Campbell Union High School visitor. Jack Murdock served as chairman.

Next week, entertainment will be furnished by the Grammar School orchestra and Lloyd Nelson will be chairman.

Chamber of Commerce Meeting Place Changed

Because the Campbell Chamber of Commerce has grown so rapidly the past two months, its former meeting place in Wheeler's Orchard City Creamery is no longer adequate for the large number attending. Ira Grim, Chamber President, announces that the next meeting will be held in the Country Woman's Club at 1 p.m. on Wednesday, April 16.

The meetings will continue as luncheon gatherings and the members of the American Legion Auxiliary will prepare and serve the lunches. A large attendance is expected at next Wednesday's meeting.

Under discussion will be further attempts to secure a bank for Campbell and more adequate lighting for Campbell Ave. between the two highways.

HAS UNUSUAL PLANE TRIP

Charles A. Patterson, Press employee, had an interesting letter from his daughter, Florence Elre-na, who left Friday by plane for New York where she will embark for Belgium to study. En route the plane was unable to land at Chicago due to flood conditions and was forced to return 150 miles to Mobile, Ill., where it landed safely.

A bus was chartered by the Air Lines to take the passengers to Chicago through the turbulent flood waters. The plane was delayed 12 hours leaving San Francisco.

Campbell Packing Co. Now Operating

On Tuesday the Campbell Packing Co., formerly Campbell Products Co., started dehydrating potatoes. Operations began later than usual this year but are expected to continue until the middle of June.

The plant is now running under the Government Surplus Diversion Program which is shipping food products to the starving foreign countries of the world. Potatoes now being dehydrated at the Campbell plant are being shipped to the Dutch East Indies. The United States Government furnishes the raw potatoes and the Foreign Purchasing Commission pays for the finished product.

Production is now being carried on 24 hours a day with three shifts of workers.

ATTENDS CONFERENCE

William Henley, principal of Campbell Grammar School, attended the Principals' convention at San Diego during the Easter vacation. He was accompanied by Mrs. Henley and they made the return trip through Death Valley.

UNDERGOES SURGERY

Les Ackerman is a patient at the Community Service Hospital where he underwent surgery Tuesday. He is convalescing satisfactorily and expects to be home the latter part of next week.

TENNESSEE VISITOR

An enthusiastic visitor is Tom Rees of Chattanooga, Tenn., who is visiting at the home of his brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Rees.

Hospitalization Program

The American Cancer Society, Santa Clara county division, may pay hospital expenses for cancer cases when they require hospitalization for diagnostic procedures or for curative treatment. No funds are available for professional services of physicians. Patients may be sent to the hospital provided:

1. That he is not entitled to free care in a tax supported hospital.
2. That the physician will certify that the patient cannot afford to pay for hospital care.
3. That the physician will agree to waive his fee for services.

This provision is primarily for the care of early, presumably curable cases, and for other cases requiring emergency surgery (up to 21 days). Special cases requiring longer hospitalization must receive special authority. Funds collected during this campaign make this service possible.

$50,000 Building To Start Program On Railroad Site This Year

Negotiations are in the final stage for the purchase of 2½ acres of industrially-zoned land in Campbell by the Oakland Foundry Co., of Belleville, Ill., according to Hugo Ehret, chairman of the Board.

The land will be used for the erection of a stove assembly plant to be known as the Santa Clara Stove Co. A division of the Oakland Foundry Co., the new plant will be used for the assembling of stoves and processing and stamping the metal parts made at the foundry.

A member of the Cooking and Heating Appliance Manufacturers' Industry, the Oakland Foundry Co. is engaged in the production of various types of gas, wood and coal ranges and heaters.

The cost of the initial program is estimated at $50,000 with an eventual program of $500,000 planned. Located at Kennedy and Railroad Avenues, the plant will be constructed of steel in an attractive design and will occupy approximately 10,000 square feet. Landscaping is also planned for the new building.

Due to the present shortage of steel and other contributing factors, construction of the new plant will not start until late in 1947.

Ehret has been in Campbell since early in February arranging for the purchase of suitable land for his purpose. Also in the valley to inspect the property were his son, King Ehret, president of the company, and A. J. Schmid, the concern's secretary.

"Campbell needs year-round industries," said Ehret, "and this new plant will be a clean and attractive one with no unpleasant features for the residents. Since so many people are attracted to the Santa Clara Valley to live, it is natural for industry also to be attracted."

Ehret feels a special affection for Campbell since he married a Campbell girl forty years ago next month. She is the former Ann Relfe whose father, James Relfe, makes his home on Central Ave. Mr. and Mrs. Ehret have visited Campbell almost every year since their marriage and Mrs. Ehret is here now with her husband.

In charge of the new plant will be Ehret's younger son, Relfe Stanford Ehret, who has many friends in the community, having attended Stanford University.

Attorney James F. Boccardo of San Jose was the seller of the property and the sale is being handled by W. C. Bohnett of the Guy Farley Real Estate office.

ATTENDS CONFERENCE

Laurance Hill, Campbell Union High School principal, attended the conference of secondary principals in Los Angeles during the Easter vacation.

Junior Baseball League Starting

Boys of 13 and under will be happy to learn that a junior baseball league is now being formed. Games will be played on Saturday at the high school baseball field.

All boys living within the area of Campbell Union High School District will be eligible to join. The project, organized by Arthur Tindall, grammar school teacher, is under the sponsorship of the new co-ordinating council.

Those interested in participating should contact Lloyd Nelson at Nelson's Sport Shop on Campbell Ave. near First St.

CAMPBELL NEWCOMERS

Being warmly welcomed into the community are Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Murphy, who are now at home on Budd Ave. The Murphys were former residents of Omaha, Neb., but have been living in San Jose for the past four months. Mrs. Murphy is active in Red Cross work and is already a valuable addition to the San Jose Red Cross group.

BAPTISTS TO MEET

There will be a meeting Friday evening at 7:30 at the home of J. B. Decker of Campbell Baptists who are interested in organizing a Northern Baptist Church in Campbell. All interested residents are invited to attend.

Campbell Court Notes

By Judge Blaine

On Easter morning a telephone call awakened the household of the Campbell judge very early. It was from the chief of police of a neighboring town.

The judge in that town was away over the week-end and the chief had on hand two drunks, one charged with drunk driving, the other with being drunk in a public place. If somebody was sent to Campbell would the Campbell judge approve the bail? Yes.

On Tuesday in the week before Easter two strangers had been fined for selecting Campbell to get drunk in. On Wednesday a Campbell man had been fined for being drunk the second time in slightly over a month. On Thursday morning a man had paid a fine for drunk driving. On Thursday afternoon a man had signed a complaint against an in-law for being drunk and disturbing the peace.

On Good Friday a Campbell man had been arrested for being drunk the third time in little over a month. On Saturday morning the man had been arraigned who had been booked for drunken trouble on Thursday afternoon. On Saturday evening late a man had called to sign a complaint a gainst the man who had been arrested for drunken trouble on Good Friday.

It might be thought that such experiences in the last days of Lent and right up to Easter would make a judge discouraged with his job. The contrast with the beauty of Lent and Easter would naturally make such experiences seem particularly ugly—and they did seem ugly.

And yet, without the ugly there never would have been this time and day of beauty. In point, in the Christ story according to St. Luke, is this significant verse: "Now when Jesus was risen early on the first day of the week, he appeared first to Mary Magdalene, out of whom he had cast seven devils."

That somebody must deal with the ugly is suggested in that verse most dramatically, simply, and beautifully. And to repeat, we know that without the worst side of life there never would have been a Christ story to tell. So, "come wind, come weather," we carry on.

Grammar School Notes

Mrs. Saucher is in charge of the "Junior Red Cross" of Campbell school. A few of the many projects which the pupils are working on are knitting socks, collecting cards of many types, making scrapbooks, painting wall hangings, and many other useful and entertaining things for the soldiers in hospitals. The "Junior Red Cross" has collected over $75 in funds from the pupils. Every student in the school is a member and every room in the school gets a monthly booklet on J.R.C. news.

Mrs. Saver's fifth grade class is studying the history of California. Her pupils have made a model of Mission San Jose in a sand box with clay figures.

The student teacher, Miss Nadine Clark from San Jose State College, has left Campbell to take up teaching in Gilroy this coming fall. —Barbara Shockley.

As I opened the door of Mr. Davidson's room, I thought I was stepping into a part of Old Mexico. The walls are covered with brightly decorated book covers. The children of this room have made these covers for their study of early California. On the back wall you can see very large hats for their Spanish play.

Mrs. Davidson told me how well her students had made their relief maps of our own beautiful state.

Jimmy Mariotti, one of the boys in this class, has just returned from a trip to Tucson, Arizona, by airplane. He gave his class an interesting account of his trip and of how Mt. Whitney looks when one is high above it.

Jane Anne Pavley. Miss Brehmer's class has just completed a subject in the study of steel. They are now going to study the different sections of our country, and in science they are studying and working on electricity. Many of the students, both boys and girls, have made telegraph sets and electro-magnets. —Bobby Kato.

As I stepped into Mrs. Petersen's second grade room I saw pictures of pets and animals. I was told that the class had just finished studying farm animals and were going to study pets and toys.

Their room is right up to date with spring pictures and flowers. Monday morning the children told about their Easter vacation and what the Easter bunny brought them.

On the wall was a picture of two children brushing their teeth. Underneath the picture were seven health rules. Mrs. Petersen said that this is to remind the children to keep clean. They not only keep themselves clean but also their room, desks and playgrounds. In this way they are learning to be good citizens. —Ethel Oeser.

Campfire Girls

The Odakonga Campfire group recently hiked to the Fred Evans home on Casey Road where they enjoyed a trail lunch. They were accompanied by their leader, Mrs. D. W. Ribble, and Mrs. K. D. Babbs.

At their last regular meeting on Thursday, Mr. R. Seaback showed moving pictures of the Old Settlers' Day parade, a nature film and some comics. Jacqueline Silberbauer and Merlyn Shaves were in charge of the meeting and served refreshments which they had made themselves.

Sponsoring parents who attended the movies were Mrs. R. Seaback, Mrs. Leslie Titus, Mrs. Merle Shaves, Mrs. Walter Silberbauer, Mrs. Chambers and Mrs. V. Zimmerman.

SPRING COMES TO S.F.

Two big annual flower displays and another in the offering are proof that spring has officially arrived in San Francisco.

Maiden Lane on April 10 and 11 will be transformed into a Dutch garden, with tulips galore, pretty girls in the costumes of Holland, singing birds, strolling troubadours, and thousands of daffodils. The O'Connor Moffatt store for the second year displayed in windows and aisles, throughout Easter week, more than 10,000 beautiful plants and flowers of every variety—following which they were given to the Red Cross for distribution to bay-area hospitals. And very soon now, Union Square will be bright with masses of rhododendrons from Golden Gate Park.

The little copper cent is a tiny, trifling coin until you see how BIG it becomes when spent for electricity that powers the appliances that do so many hard jobs of housework for you.

Once electricity was used only for lighting in the home. Now dozens of electric appliances are hard at work every day in every modern home. And each year more electrical servants are added because they work so well and cost so little to use. Electricity is your biggest penny's worth.

SHOWERS TODAY: You don't have to be a weather prophet to predict "Showers Today." For there's always a new crop of brides coming along, to say nothing about babies, new home owners, travelers, and even groomsmen! And what fun it is to observe anniversaries, both wedding and birthday, with showers instead of the usual gift-wrapped packages!

HOBBY SHOWERS: A smart idea in planning showers is to build around a hobby. His, Hers, Theirs, no matter what the occasion, S'pose it's gardening. This is the time for garden books, hats, gloves, choice bulbs and seeds, garden tools. If your garden is at its best, make it an outdoor party, planning around a Sunday night buffet supper for the two of them. A small overall-clad boy, pushing a wheelbarrow, might bring in the gifts.

If she goes in for cooking, there's the kitchen gadget shower, the covered-dish luncheon with tried and true recipes, made up and written up, for "testing." Laundry, pantry, and game room showers are good for any new home owners. And it does so help the invited guests to know what to bring. Do they like camping, sports? Make it a fish-fry, a barbecue, a picnic, or a hobo party, with guests arriving in appropriate costume to add fun to the occasion. If they're going on a trip, why not a progressive dinner, with a different course served as the group "progresses" from house to house, food being appropriate to the places to be visited.

GOOD IDEAS: Then there's the shower built around an idea. The Book Shower, for instance—budget books, recipe books, memorandum books, book ends, a favorite volume of verse, a kitchen diary, baby books, books on the places to be visited, these might well be gifts. . . . She's interested in flower arrangements. And Baskets. What homemaker ever has enough baskets? Sewing baskets, clothes hampers; market and cleaning baskets; picnic and garden baskets; flower, sandwich, bread baskets. An idea to work on for a Blessed Event, too! Sewing showers—built around equipment for the gal who likes to sew or a sewing party at which everyone sews on something, lunch cloths, dish towels, tea napkins, or baby clothes!

FOOD OF COURSE: The time of day the shower is given really doesn't matter. You may serve luncheon, breakfast, buffet supper, brunch. Or stop with simple mid-afternoon or evening refreshments. It isn't necessary to go to a great deal of expense. Interesting food and table settings, in keeping with the kind of shower—that's all that's necessary. For showers are given because of our love for a person. An intimate thing, this shower business. One's heart should be in it. Otherwise, let there be—No Showers Today!

Scouts Camp At Swanton Easter

By Dudley Herschbach

Twenty-one members of Moreland Scout Troop No. 36 enjoyed a three-day camping trip over Easter vacation at Swanton Scout Ranch, 10 miles north of Santa Cruz, and returned not only wiser in camping experience but also feeling that they had had a swell time.

To illustrate this latter fact—a few of the things they did:

They climbed, crawled, and scrambled up a 3000 foot mountain to the highest summit in the vicinity—using a trail that must have been made by a crow (straight up and straight down)—and rolled, fell, and tumbled back down in 10 minutes!

The scoutmaster, senior patrol leader and patrol leaders had fun at the troop's expense as they "April fooled" the winner of a "best skit contest" and presented him with a carefully wrapped onion as the prize, explaining that it should make him "weep with joy"—it did—he ate it!

The scouts also spent an afternoon at Santa Cruz and had a gala time as they played a swell game of football (it was swell to me; my side won, 43-13!). They swam, fished (the total catch—one fish), and attempted to save a man trying to commit suicide.

This last incident was, of course, somewhat exciting as "it doesn't happen every day." Unfortunately I didn't see it myself (I never get those kind of breaks) but the eyewitnesses described it something like this:

"We were just walking along the board walk and were about 20 feet from the end of the wharf when this man suddenly jumped up from the bench where he had been sleeping and leaped (they couldn't agree whether he jumped or dived) off the end of the pier. His hat fell off and landed on the wharf. (One of the boys picked it up and is very proud of his souvenir). The man was wearing a cotton jacket and as he jumped it caught the air like a parachute and kept him afloat when he hit the water.

"We grabbed a rope with a life preserver and tossed it to him but he pushed it away. He seemed to lose his nerve then, though, and held on to some barnacles attached to a pile. A small boat was passing by, so we hailed it and they picked up the fellow."

Although the scouts' part in this drama was small, they considered themselves big heroes and really lorded it over the rest of us for awhile. But we didn't mind—we had more fun deflating their egos!

Another amusing thing about the suicide attempt was that a news reporter had been questioning the scouts as to where they came from, where they were camped, who was their scoutmaster, their troop number, etc., for five minutes and was going to do a story about our trip.

After getting all this information the reporter left for his office—two minutes before the man jumped off the deep end! Maybe he felt worse about missing it than I did!

Bread Making

Fresh home-made yeast bread is one of the most pleasing foods to serve to the men folks anywhere, but especially out in the country.

The modern housewife is more fortunate than her grandmother, because she has the short process method for making yeast bread to save time. This method is easy and the bread can be made while other tasks are being done about the house. The process is described step by step in a leaflet of the Agricultural Extension Service. It gives the equipment you will need as well as the recipe, and illustrations showing the proper way to knead the dough, according to Mary Loo Saunders, assistant demonstration agent.

If you would like one of these leaflets call at the A.E.S., 201 Post Office building, San Jose, or phone Columbia 3866 and the leaflet will be mailed.

Moreland Notes

Manuel Macias

Students returned to school Monday after a week's vacation. Spring vacation was enjoyed by teachers and students alike.

If you have been wondering why the 90 foot steel tower was placed on the Moreland school grounds, it was because the U. S. Geodetic Survey has a base mark placed there.

According to workmen who assisted in erecting the tower, the Geodetic Survey is a branch of the Interior Department and is engaged in obtaining new data on the longitude and latitude of Santa Clara County.

With the construction of the new school building well on its way, a new policy has been outlined concerning the use of the cafeteria during the dinner hour.

In order to avoid confusion and to insure safety, now that the playground space will be limited, the upper and lower grades will have lunch at different times. The smaller children will have lunch at 11:30 while the upper grades will be served at 12:15.

Student Council Policy
Introduced At Moreland

Now that school has convened once more, the faculty and students have introduced the Merit System of student government.

Under this system, the pupils of the upper grades elect council members who take charge of the discipline and conduct of students.

Indoor and outdoor monitors, elected by the students, supervise the conduct and traffic in the halls, on the stairs and in the cafeteria and on the play grounds.

At regular intervals, the student council meets with a faculty advisor, where cases of discipline are handled and demerits charged against serious offenders.

It is hoped that the student council will help to bring a spirit of true democracy at the school.

Representatives of the 7th and 8th grades will participate in the county "spelling bee" which is sponsored by the San Francisco News. Elimination tests will begin Monday and the winners will compete with other schools April 12.

At the present time, the County Office has not designated the place where the tests will be held.

Students from the 7th and 8th grades who have been elected to the student council are: Mickle Chiechie, Phyllis Monroe, 8th; Donne Montmorency, and Manuel Macias, 7th; Ruth Eyer, Gwen Robertson, bookkeepers. Mark Smith is 5th grade representative and Norma Hughes, 6th grade.

SAN FRANCISCO TAXI FARES ARE UP

With approval of the Board of Supervisors San Franciscans and visitors to the city will, 30 days after Mayor Lapham's signing of the measure, find themselves paying higher taxi fares. The new rates allow 30c, instead of 25c, a mile after the "flag drop" charge of 25 cents; $1.35 instead of $1 for "point to point" trips of more than four miles within the city limits; and a charge of 10c for each two and a half minutes of waiting time, whether caused by traffic delays or at the customer's request.

S. F. DOUBLE PARKING FINE MAY BE QUINTUPLED

Raising of the fine for double parking in San Francisco from a nominal $1 to a minimum of $5 has been recommended by the Administrative Transportation Planning Council, and endorsed by Mayor Lapham and by the police department and the municipal judges who try traffic violations. Parking by a fire hydrant may also incur the same fine. The council said that "there appears to be very little point in extending the one-way street program unless immediate measures are taken to correct double parking."

TRAFFIC TOLL HEAVY

More people were killed in accidents in the United States between Pearl Harbor and V-J Day than died from war wounds during the same period. This fact was used by Col. Thos. J. Cross, Veteran Administration Branch 12 chief, in furthering the V. A.'s campaign urging veterans to retain or reinstate their national service life insurance.

Musical Tea Proves Popular

Approximately 175 members of the Methodist Women's Service Club and their guests gathered at the Methodist church last Wednesday afternoon for the Musical Tea "Spring Prelude." With Mrs. Dan Clark greeting the guests as general chairman, the program got under way with Bruce Stewart, bass soloist, singing "Where're You Walk," by Handel, "Il Lacerato Spirito" by Verdi, and "Drink to Me Only with Thine Eyes" by Johnson. He was accompanied by George Walston.

Following Mr. Stewart was Janice Carlander on the violin, playing "Theme de Ballet" by De Berceit. She was accompanied by Mrs. J. H. Strayer.

The next artist was Kathleen James, soprano, who sang several spring numbers, among them "Song of Spring" by Schneider, "The Holiday" by Crothers; "Open Secret" by Woodman, and "The Wind's in the South" by Scott. Mrs. Strayer accompanied her on the piano.

Miss Carlander followed with another violin solo, the First Movement Concerto No. 22 in A Minor by Viotti, accompanied by Mrs. Strayer.

S. Powell, Laurance Hill and Earl Buck. The general chairman of the decorations was Mrs. William Lloyd with Mesdames Joe Dahl and Guy Fanley serving on her committee.

Publicity chairman was Mrs. Raymond Flagg. The refreshments were planned under the chairmanship of Mrs. Herman Rice assisted by Mesdames Claudine Hancock, William Lloyd, William Runge, Dan Clark, H. Raymond Johnson, Franklin Blaine, Milton Robertson, Charles Short and Miss Ruby Howes.

The tables were decorated under the direction of Mrs. LBen Howard assisted by Mesdames Bill Means, Dean Chamberlain and Ward Edsinger. The table setting was handled by Bessie Porter and Floy Morris.

Preceding the program and during the tea, organ music was played by Mrs. Edith Van Rossen.

The reception of the tea and program was so favorable that plans are tentatively being made to make the affair an annual event on the spring calendar.

THE WHAT NOT

No Flies - - More Beef

Fly time for cattle is just ahead with the warmer days.

DDT offers relief to animals and larger profits to ranchers. Beef cattle protected by DDT from annoyance during fly season have gained from one-third to one-half pound more per day than animals not treated.

DDT suspension sprays are more efficient for fly control than emulsions, according to James R.

Douglas of the division of entomology and parasitology, College of Agriculture. They weather more slowly and retain their killing power for a longer time.

Only the back and back of the neck of the animal need be wet with the spray. It may be applied either with hand equipment or power sprayers.

Full directions for controlling flies on livestock with DDT are available from the Agricultural Extension Service, 201 Post Office Bldg., San Jose. M. S. Beckley, assistant farm advisor, will be glad to help with any further questions.

HELPED MAKE AMERICA GREAT

Box Office Reporter

As romantic as a Mexican moon, as tuneful as a troubador, as colorful as a serape — that's "Holiday in Mexico," gayest musical of the year, with a cast headed by Walter Pidgeon, Jose Iturbi, Roddy McDowell, Jane Powell, Ilona Massey and Xavier Cugat.

Filmed in Technicolor, the new musical, to be shown at the Campbell Theater Sunday, Monday and Tuesday, has Mexico City as its colorful locale and moves swiftly and tunefully from the various embassies to the glitter of night clubs, concluding in a blaze of glory at a brilliantly staged fiesta.

Cast as the American Ambassador to Mexico, Pidgeon departs temporarily from dramatic portrayals to turn his talents toward cementing the good neighbor policy as the perfect diplomat. The role marks his first appearance in a musical in several years.

As his romantic interest is Ilona Massey, termed one of the screen's most beautiful women, and a talented singing star. Accompanied by Cugat's orchestra, Miss Massey sings several of the film's song hits.

Bursting across the cinematic scene as a full-fledged star is 15-year-old Jane Powell, the "wonder child" who has been so in demand on radio that she has scarcely had time to make pictures. Little Miss Powell, possessor of a remarkable soprano voice, is seen as Pidgeon's daughter. Her songs range from such classical selections as Ave Maria and the Italian Street Song to "Goodnight Sweetheart."

As Miss Powell's adolescent boy friend is Roddy McDowell, cast as the son of the British ambassador to Mexico.

Jose Iturbi, again playing himself, wins one of his best roles to date as the mature object of Miss Powell's immature affections. Iturbi faces some stiff competition from members of his own family. Not only does his sister, Amparo, appear in a role but his two small granddaughters are seen as themselves in one lively sequence.

California has more than nine per cent of all automobiles in the United States.

Hormones To Set Tomatoes

Applying hormone sprays to tomatoes during the early blooming season may cause them to set fruit, thus producing an earlier crop, according to P. A. Minges, specialist in truck crops of the Agricultural Extension Service.

Minges explains this may be especially helpful to market tomatoes to growers trying to supply the early market. The early tomatoes start flowering during the cool weather and frequently drop flowers until warmer weather comes.

The use of chemicals for setting fruit on field grown tomatoes is still in the experimental stage, and Minges recommends they be used only experimentally this year.

Hormones are substances which control the growth processes of plants. Serious injury to the foliage by too heavy concentrations stunts plant growth, reduces later yields and opens up the foliage so that sunburning of the fruit may increase. More culls from roughness, puffiness, and poor internal color of the fruit have been observed in a few tests.

Because of the danger of injury, the hormone has been applied in water solutions as a spray from a knapsack type hand sprayer. Attempt is made to wet each blossom cluster thoroughly and avoid the foliage as much as possible. The plants can be sprayed only once because injury may result from a second application.

Many tests will be observed further this year. Tomato growers wishing more information on this subject may consult the Agricultural Extension Service, 201 Post Office Bldg., San Jose.

In the entire pine region from the Rocky Mountains westward, destruction by pine bark beetles averages four trees every minute. Wool will absorb up to 18 per cent of its own weight without feeling damp, and up to 50 percent of its weight without becoming saturated.

MEAT FOR MENUS

Low-priced lamb shoulder may be used for these lamb pieces prepared on skewers. They broil quickly and make a palatable dinner when you want to cook in a jiffy.

Recent visits to the market have convinced me that most education about meat cooking was forgotten during rationing and shortages. Most of us worked ourselves into a sort of rut about meats and now find that we need a brush-up course on meat cookery.

Meat should satisfy and to do so it must be properly prepared. It broiling is what the cut needs, make sure your temperature is high enough to make the job decently. But if it's braising, make sure the heat is slow and steady and the cooking moist.

Here are a few of the things you ought to remember when buying meat: First of all, become acquainted with a variety of cuts so that you can better manage your budget and give the family much-needed menu variety. Ask the market man for advice. He can give you tips on specials and help you get more for your money.

If you have meats boned at the market, always ask for the bones to take home. They're wonderful for flavoring soups, sautes and vegetables. When you purchase large cuts, have some steaks or chops removed for another meal. There won't be so many leftovers, and you will be able to get more variety from the large cuts.

Spicy Pot Roast

(Serves 8 to 10)

- 3 lb. pot roast (neck, chuck, brisket, htl of round or rump)
- 2 cups canntd tomatos
- 3 onions, sliced
- Salt and pepper
- 1/2 teaspoon whole cloves
- 1 stick cinnamon
- 1/2 teaspoon marjoram
- 1/4 teaspoon pepper
- 1/3 cup vinegar

Brown pot roast on all sides. Add tomatoes, onions and seasonings.

Pour the vinegar over all. Cover closely and simmer 3 to 4 hours, or until tender. When meat is tender, place on and thicken for hot platter. Strain liquid which was around the meat and thicken for gravy.

Pork or Veal Chops

(Serves 6)

- 1 1/2 lbs. chops
- 1 tablespoon salt
- 3 tablespoons flour
- 1-8 teaspoon red pepper

1 clove garlic
 Lard for browning
 Have chops cut 1/2 to 3/4 inch thick. Salt each chop. Dredge chops in flour which has been mixed with hthyme and red pepper. Rub frying pan with clove of garlic; add lard and brown chops on both sides.

Lamb Curry

(Serves 6)

- 1 1/2 cups cubed cooked amb
- Lard or drippings for browning
- 3/4 cup chopped onion
- 1/4 cup chopped green pepper
- 1/2 cup chopped celery
- 1/2 clove garlic, finely chopped
- 1 teaspoon curry powder
- 1 tablespoon Worcestershire sauce
- 2 cups lamb broth (made from bones of roast)
- 1 1/2 teaspoons salt
- 3 cups rice
- 2 tablespoons flour

Cut meat in 1/2-inch cubes. Brown onion, pepper and celery lightly in drippings, then add garlic, curry powder, sauce, broth and meat. Cover and simmer for 30 minutes. Mix flour and salt with 1/4 cup cold water and stir mixture to thicken. Serve curry in boiled rice ring, which has been prepared meanwhile in double boiler.

A well prepared beef or veal tongue is delightful. Those who have learned to eat it reserve it for special occasions. Long slow cooking such as is received in braising is designated for preparing this delectable dish.

Braised Tongue, Vegetable Gravy.

(Serves 12)

- 1 4-lb. tongue, fresh
- Water
- 1/2 cup diced onions
- 1 cup diced carrots
- 3/4 cup diced celery
- 3 tablespoons flour
- 1 1/2 cups liquid in which tongue was cooked
- 1 teaspoon salt
- 1/4 teaspoon pepper
- Wash tongue and cover with water. Add salt, cover and simmer until tender, allowing 4 hours. Trim and remove skin. Slice tongue and place in pan with vegetables. Make a smooth paste of flour and water, adding liquid and seasonings. Pour sauce over tongue and vegetables. Simmer for 1 hour. Serve with potatoes boiled in their jackets.

An interesting variation to the meat course comes in the way of lamb en brochette, pieces of inexpensive meat placed on skewers. These are broiled and go beautifully with a dinner of baked, whipped potatoes, buttered lima beans, a vegetable salad and fruit whip for dessert.

A broiler dinner prepared in a few minutes consists of tomatoes, lamb patties and boiled potatoes sprinkled with cheese.

Lamb en Brochette

(Serves 6)

- 2 lbs. lamb shoulder cut in 1-inch cubes

Information For Veterans

All disabled veterans, including retired officers, are entitled to the benefits of the vocational rehabilitation act. Some questions received by the V. A. office are:

Question: I am attending a junior college under the G.I. Bill but have just about decided that I want to drop out and start an apprenticeship as a carpenter, electrician, or in some other field in the building trades. Will I have to notify the V.A. and what will they do about it?

Answer: If you decide to drop out of school to start an apprenticeship, it will be necessary to obtain the approval of the V.A. in order to secure a supplementary certificate of eligibility. This may involve an interview with a counselor at a V.A. Guidance Center. Question: I was discharged from the Navy with a disability just about a week ago and am now on terminal leave. Can I attend school under either the G.I. Bill or the Vocational Rehabilitation Act?

Answer: Yes. Your tuition, other than fees and books will be paid by the V.A., but you will not be entitled to subsistence allowance until your terminal leave expires.

Vets Entitled To Medical Services

The Veterans Administration has learned that many disabled veterans training under the vocational rehabilitation act in northern California are personally bearing the expense of medical services that may be charged to V.A.

This act provides that V.A. may correct ailments, service-connected or not, that interfere with the rehabilitation objectives of trainees. This means, for example, that a trainee who develops eye trouble may apply for an eye examination from V.A. If the doctor determines that glasses are necessary for the trainee to successfully complete his rehabilitation program, V.A. will pay for them.

Misinformation regarding the vocational rehabilitation act has also led disabled veterans to pass up training because:

1. They believe that their disabilities are too great and that the act does not provide training for them.
2. They believe that they will lose their disability compensation if they enter training programs.
3. They believe that retired officers are not eligible for rehabilitation training.
